COMMISSARY SAFE ROBBED OF $1,500

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Suffolk, Va., November 9.—Some unknown party last night entered the commissary of the plant of the Virginia Manufacturing Company's branch at Suffolk, and stole from the safe the entire payroll of the week, amounting to more than $1,500. Two detectives and bloodhounds from Suffolk were sent to the scene of the robbery, but owing to the number of people who had visited the commissary no trail could be obtained. The burglar left no clue as to his identity.

MAKES REPLY TO POWER COMPANY

Richmond and Henrico Railway Issues Signed Statement Denying Anderson's Charges.

STORY "MALICIOUSLY FALSE"

Statement Puts Ananias Label on Charge That Company Wouldn't Stay Bought.

Denying in vigorous language the sensational charges brought against it by Henry W. Anderson last Thursday night before a meeting of the Council Committee on Streets, the Richmond and Henrico Railway Company issued a signed statement to the public yesterday setting forth what it calls "the facts" in the matter at issue.

Mr. Anderson's charge that in 1909 the same interests which now own the Richmond and Henrico Railway were paid $40,000 by the Richmond Passenger and Power Company to get out of the street railway field, and that within two years, in violation of this agreement, they applied for a franchise under the name of the Citizens' Rapid Transit Company, is branded as "willfully and maliciously false."

The statement also denies the Ananias label on Mr. Anderson's allegation that within the last ten days the Canadian shareholders, said to have a controlling interest in the Richmond and Henrico Railway Company, had made overtures looking to the sale of their holdings to the Virginia Railway and Power Company.

Telegram From Canadian.
"This last charge," according to W. S. Forbes and W. F. Jenkins, president and vice-president, respectively, of the Richmond and Henrico Railway Company, "bears the same negligible relation to truth as do all the others."

In support of this, the statement offers the following telegram, dated yesterday, from Toronto:

"The statement made by Mr. Anderson is entirely untrue. No one has approached anybody to sell interests in the railway. Have not seen or heard of reputable bankers mentioned, and no one has authority to do so. Statement made is without any foundation."

The telegram is addressed to W. S. Forbes & Co., this city, and bears the signature of J. M. McWhinney, stated to be the general manager of the Union Trust Company, of Toronto, the "Canadian interests" referred to by Mr. Anderson.

"We desire again to make the statement as strongly as possible," the officers of the railway company reiterate, "that no broker, agent, or any other person whatever has ever been authorized by this company to sell, offer for sale, or enter into any negotiations with anybody for the sale of the property of the Richmond and Henrico Railway Company; any statement to the contrary is wholly false."

"All this company desires at the hands of the Council is the opportunity, and it will give to the people of Richmond real competition in every branch of the electric business."

Explains $40,000 Incident.
The facts in the $40,000 incident, says the statement, are these: In 1899 the Jenkins Conduit Company entered into an agreement whereby its members should assist in securing for the Richmond Passenger and Power Company the "Meth Street franchise, which expired in 1899, in consideration of an interest in the franchise and the installation of the underground owned by the Jenkins Conduit Company."

That part of the agreement calling for the installation of the underground system, the chief consideration, it is charged, was never carried out. The $40,000, it is explained, was the "interest" already referred to as part of the price paid for the support of the Jenkins Conduit Company, and was divided among the stockholders of the latter company. According to the statement, these were:

W. H. Palmer, John C. Hagan, J. W. Benton, H. W. Rountree, W. R. Johnson, J. Lane Stern, R. A. Lancaster, H. T. Valentine, J. D. Patton, Warner Moore, D. R. Midyette, James B. Patton, E. A. Hoen, Pascal Davis, Andrew Pizzini, Jr., John Robertson, W. F. Jenkins, W. S. Forbes, W. B. Davis, H. O. Gates and T. P. Davis. "Washington Post."

The attempt to make the Street Committee and the people of Richmond believe, "the Henrico Railway officers continue, 'that we, or either of us, or anybody else connected with the Richmond and Henrico Railway Company, received $40,000 or any part of it, as a consideration for retiring from the street railway field in Richmond, and that we have in any way violated that agreement, is willfully and maliciously false, and shows the stress to which the Virginia Railway and Power Company is driven in their attempt to prevent competition."

SENT TO REFORMATORY

Boy Fined, Sent to Reformatory.
Pleading guilty to the charge of robbing the cart of S. F. Ford of Ashland, a peddler of a large quantity of groceries and vegetables, Rossie Bennett, fifteen years old, was sent to the reformatory yesterday afternoon in the Juvenile Court. Bennett was arrested Friday by Bicycle Officer Taylor on a warrant sworn out by Ford, by whom the young thief had been employed. Bennett at first denied the crime, but after the testimony of several witnesses he broke down and confessed.

Fined for Striking Negro.
Magistrate R. A. Smith, of Henrico County, yesterday imposed a fine of $5 and costs on Robert Johnson, the young negro who struck Noah Sutton, a negro, with a brick on Thursday night. The negro paid the fine and was given his freedom.

OBITUARY.
William B. Fleming.
After a long illness, William Bowden Fleming died at his home, near Jeffersonville, Va., of the effects of the first stroke in the seventy-seventh year of his age.

He was born and raised near Beaver Dam Church, Goochland County, Va., at "Mother's Lodge," the home of his parents, John Syme and Indiana Bowden Fleming, but had lived for many years, or since the death of his mother, Frederick Fleming, who was the last partner of S. O. Jones.

our present Secretary of the Commonwealth, and was for a long time the Commonwealth's attorney of Goochland County.

Mr. Fleming has also a younger brother, John Syme Fleming, now living in Richmond. The father of Mr. Fleming was himself a prominent attorney, while his brother, Dr. George Fleming, of Beaver Dam, Hanover County, was equally prominent in the medical profession.

Dr. George Fleming was the stepfather of Louis Minor Coleman, at whose noted school, "Hanover Academy," near Taylorville, William Fleming was prepared for the University of Virginia, which he attended for several seasons, after Mr. Coleman became one of its professors. He served during the war in a field artillery company, under the command of Colonel Coleman, till the death of that gallant officer from the loss of a leg in the battle of Fredericksburg. After the war Mr. Fleming married Miss Caledonia Anderson, of Cumberland County, who died at Ashland in 1896. Four children of this union are now living, and lovingly ministered to their father during his last illness: viz., Miss Mary Lewis, Fredericka Nassau, who married Dr. Clarence Hoffman, assistant professor of anatomy in Jefferson College, Philadelphia; John Syme and William Bowden.

Mr. Fleming was a communicant of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and was comforted by its holy communion in his last illness. His remains were taken to Ashland and buried by the side of those of his wife.

Mrs. Theresa E. Griffin, widow of Maurice J. Griffin, died yesterday at 1:10 o'clock in the residence of her son-in-law, Thomas B. Johnson, 421 North Twenty-third Street. She leaves three children: Thomas B. Johnson, Jr., John R. and H. E. Griffin.

The funeral will be conducted Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church, interment in Mount Calvary Cemetery.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Moss.

She lived sixty years, was born and reared near Harrisonburg, returning here last May. She leaves three daughters—Mrs. Roberta Owens and Mrs. L. A. Russell, this city, and Mrs. Lewis H. Payne, wife of Lewis H. Payne.

George Walton.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Charlottesville, Va., November 9.—George Walton died last night at the University Hospital, after a brief illness of typhoid fever. The funeral will be held Friday at 10 o'clock at the Church at White Hall, and the interment will be in the church cemetery.

Mr. Walton was a native of Albemarle County, having been born and reared near Free Union.

J. H. Dishman.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Fredericksburg, Va., November 9.—J. H. Dishman, a well known citizen of King George County, died at his home near Nine's Store, after an illness of several months of lung trouble, aged sixty years. He is survived by four daughters and two sons.

Mrs. Ida M. Valentine.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Charlottesville, Va., November 9.—Mrs. Ida M. Valentine, wife of R. P. Valentine, president of the Charlottesville Woolen Mill, died suddenly last night in Richmond, where she was on a visit to relatives. The remains reached here on the noon train today, and the funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon, Mrs. Valentine was, before her marriage, Miss Ida Payne.

DEATHS.
PATTILLO.—Died, November 7, 1912, at her home, Dumfries, Va. ELIZA DIGGES PATTILLO, the wife of C. P. Pattillo, in her sixtieth year. She leaves one daughter, husband, two sisters and one brother to mourn their loss.

Mother, darling, my heart is aching;
For your face and smiles we miss;
I long for you, dear mother,
Whom I never more shall kiss.

Farewell, dear mother, a long farewell;
God strengthen us, we pray,
To bear the grief and endure the
Till we are called away.

Farewell, dear mother, the journey
Over,
Thy tired hands will toll no more;
Thy weary head is laid to rest,
But God is good, He knows best.

MISS LENA PATTILLO.
The funeral took place from the grave in Maury Cemetery yesterday afternoon, November 9th, at 3 o'clock.

VALENTINE.—Died, at 105 East Franklin, on November 9th, MRS. P. VALENTINE, of Charlottesville, Va.

GRIFFIN.—Died, at the residence of son-in-law, Thomas B. Johnson, No. 421 Thirty-third Street, at 1:10 P. M. Saturday, November 9, 1912, MRS. THERESA E. GRIFFIN, widow of Maurice J. Griffin. Interment Mount Calvary.

FRICK.—Died, at her late residence, 203 West Marshall Street, Thursday, November 8, 1912, at 9:00 P. M. MRS. CATHERINE E. FRICK, the widow of Theodore E. Frick, she leaves three daughters, Mrs. Louis T. Metzger, Mrs. Catherine Wells and Mrs. Annie Frick, and the son, Fred J. Frick; and nine grandchildren, all of this city.

One day in heaven! I wonder,
Mother,
If you have thought of us
Since you went to your wondrous mansion
On the shore of the Jasper sea?

I wonder if you have forgotten
The voices you heard of angels singing
Since the choir of angels singing
Has gladdened your home above.

Shall we look in vain among the Angels
For the one we long to see,
And no dear face we have known
on earth
Be waiting to welcome us.

Ah! no. It could never be heaven
If we met as strangers there.
We know! You will be waiting to greet us
Inside of the portals fair.

Her funeral will take place from Sacred Heart Cathedral THIS AFTERNOON at 3 o'clock. Interment at Hollywood.

IN MEMORIAM
GERMELMAN.—In sad but loving remembrance of FREDERICK C. GERMELMAN, who departed this life four years ago, November 11, 1908.

I would not live away! I ask not to stay.
Where storm after storm rises dark
over the way;
The few cold mornings that dawn
on us here
Are followed by bloom or bedclouded with fear.

Who would live away from his
God,
Away from you heaven, that blissful
abode,
Where rivers of pleasure flow bright
over the plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns?

BY HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

Business Man Gets Great Benefit

JAMES EGGAN, MGR.,
Merchants' Distributing Association.

"It is the best tonic a man can take for a rundown condition," he says of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Men of positions of importance are not free with testimonials of indorsement as a rule, and when they do speak it is generally because they are deeply impressed.

We find this is especially so in matters pertaining to health.

Men as a rule pass over trifling ailments, but when they find themselves seriously ill they see in a new light where those dependent upon them stand.

When men recover from conditions of serious illness they are thankful and wish to help their fellow men. It is in this generous spirit that Mr. James Eggan, Manager of the Merchants Distributing Association of Boston, Mass., so highly indorses

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

There are thousands of hard working men and women who do not break down altogether, but who are near it, who can profit by Mr. Eggan's advice. At first they are merely run down and tired out. Perhaps you are one of these. If you are, begin to-day to use the greatest tonic stimulant known. It will improve your appetite and digestion, which will help make new rich blood and rebuild the worn out tissues and feed your starving nerves, which are sending out warnings.

All druggists, grocers and dealers, $1.00 a large bottle. Medical booklet and doctor's advice sent free on application.
